AMEND Senate Bill No. 1013

House Bill No. 693***

by adding the following new subsections (c)-(e) in Section 1 and redesignating the existing subsections accordingly:

(c) Upon the committee's recommendation, the general assembly shall consider the constitutionality of a federal act, law, order, or regulation when the general assembly next convenes.

(d) After considering the constitutionality of the federal act, law, order, or regulation, the general assembly may pass a joint resolution:

(1) Declaring the federal act, law, order, or regulation to be unconstitutional;

(2) Stating each ground upon which the general assembly finds the federal act, law, order, or regulation to be unconstitutional; and

(3) Directing the attorney general and reporter to file a lawsuit in a court of competent jurisdiction challenging the constitutionality of the federal act, law, order, or regulation on the grounds articulated in the resolution.

(e) Upon passage of a resolution under subsection (d), the attorney general and reporter shall file a lawsuit in accordance with the resolution not more than thirty (30) days after passage of the resolution seeking to have this state exempted from the federal act, law, order, or regulation, if appropriate, or to have the same deemed unconstitutional, or both. The attorney general may include as a basis for the lawsuit additional grounds not recited in the resolution.
